REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

Circular No. 6215-22, dated 12—13*th December* 1907.

The Third Session of the Shekdars' Training School will commence on Monday, the 13th January 1908.

2. The Deputy Commissioners of Districts are requested to submit the names of candidates for admission to the School before the end of the current month. The selections should be made strictly in accordance with this office Circular No. 14275-82, dated 1st June 1907. No candidate will be admitted into the class after the 20th January 1908.

3. The present set of Shekdars under training will be sent back to the districts immediately after their examinations by the middle of January next.

4. The following extract from the letter, dated 3rd December 1907, of the Overseer in charge of the School, is appended for the consideration of the Deputy Commissioners in making selections for the class :—

"With my experience of teaching the students in these two sessions, I have found some elderly Shekdars, who are over forty years old, not capable of rightly understanding the principles of mensuration and the right method of taking out quantities in estimating even though they have passed their Matriculation Examination as required by the Government Proceedings. So, I beg to propose that young men may alone be selected now, leaving the selection of these elderly class of men to be made later on, when the course of training may be extended to eight months."
